Got the newsletter. Hope you and Ray are doing well as well as all the old gang. I recently started fooling around on noobstories renegade server. I see a few old faces but it only has the original 10 maps or so. I miss all the custom maps we all used to run. It seems that it is the only server most play on. At times, there are 50+ players on there. Anyways, it's frustrating when some little bastard steals your vehicle or hinders you and you can't do anything about it. LOL Hope the family is ok. I've been busy renovating an old 1928 spanish home we bought in 2008. It's endless.

Hey ya Jim.. ya Dogg and I just recently got unbanned from the UN server a few weeks ago.. lol so we haven't played Renegade since 2006 but pop in off and on. Sui and I swung in n00bless and one of the Jelly servers lastnight. We too were bored with all the old maps. No one seems to want to download new maps anymore. Renwarz Server is often a ghost house anymore due to it.
Dogg's been wanting to play though lol. Maybe we'll see you sometime soon :)

Hey ya Neo..lol..been a loooong time I must say.
I got your email yesterday. I'm sure you got my reply.
Not many of us play much of anything all that much anymore..Sui hes into COD4 and BF2142..we played a little renegade a few nights ago though. It's just not as fun with all the newb's that play now...no team work like years ago. We all miss them days.

Aloha Everyone!!

Can you resend the newsletter to me Seren (LocoBoy72@yahoo.com), didnt seem to get it. As far as game play, its been pretty non existant for me. Between work and family, its been rough. Thats not to say I miss the old days when I'd be up all night and couldnt wait to get home from work to get my Renegade fix (my wife wanted kill me back then, lol). Anybody keep in touch the old bollfrog805 :P (Jeremy) lately? Tell him Loco said MAHALO and I hope all you guys are doing good. I'm plugging along, especially with Hawaii weather an all :P. Take care everyone and God Bless!
